Dodik: Turković's decision unreasonable, but not surprising – SRNA

July 1, 2020

BiH Presidency Member Milorad Dodik criticized the decision of Foreign Minister Bisera Turković to remove from the agenda of the Council of Ministers a decision to form a team of experts for Croatia's proposed nuclear waste dump at Trgovska Gora, saying the decision was unreasonable but not surprising.

Dodik said, "This is an unreasonable move, but this only speaks of relations in BiH where some always want to harm the other and not support someone."

Srpska adopts new law on electricity in line with EU's Third Energy Package – Balkan Green Energy News

July 1, 2020

The Republika Srpska National Assembly has approved a new law on electricity transposing the EU's Third Energy Package and paving the way for market liberalization.

The law envisages the unbundling, the reorganization of state-owned Elektroprivreda Republike Srpske (ERS), introduces the status of a protected consumer, the possibility of establishing energy cooperatives, and standards for the development of e-mobility.

The new law is in line with the international commitments of Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Republic of Srpska under the Energy Community Treaty. The essence of the new regulation is the liberalization of the electricity market, according to the Ministry of Energy and Mining.
